

Introduction to Subfactors

David Penneys
University of Toronto, Canada

Abstract

We will give an introduction to the theory of type II_1 subfactors. Topics will include the basic construction, the Jones tower, Jones' index rigidity theorem, the principal graphs, the standard invariant, and planar algebras. Along the way, we will discuss some similarities and differences between type II_1 and type III subfactors.